

3rd Professional Music Conference in Extremadura

In the coming 2, 3 and 4 of April 2019, the third edition of the Professional Music Conferences in Extremadura will take place in Villafranca de los Barros, a reference space where all agents involved in the music industry of Extremadura will have the opportunity to value the creative talent of our artists.

MUM (Meeting, Music, Market) is a professional meeting where, in addition to musicians, producers, companies, managers, festival directors, media and industry professionals, there will also be regional, national and international programmers from Portugal, Italy, Germany, United Kingdom ...

The Conference programme will feature discussion panels, workshops, spaces for information exchange, exhibitions, musical performances and showcases.

The 3rd Professional Music Conference in Extremadura is organised by the Centre for Performing Arts and Music (CEMART-Centro de las Artes Escénicas y la Música), the General Secretariat of Culture, the Regional Ministry of Culture and Equality of the Regional Government of Extremadura (Junta de Extremadura), the Association of Cultural Managers of Extremadura (AGCEX) and The Provincial Council of Badajoz, with the collaboration of the Council of Cáceres, Extremadura AVANTE and the City Council of Villafranca de los Barros.
